Presentation

The 3rd ESACH Meeting 2020 Madrid, “Our common past, our future”, is organised by ESACH and the MA Cultural Heritage in the 21st Century: Management and Research (Complutense University of Madrid - ESACH Madrid). It aims to innovate following the previous work done in Girona (2018) and Genoa (2019). This meeting is open to ESACH's members and non-members. ESACH wants this to be a place for the exchange of knowledges and ideas about our European heritage, but also we hope this event serve for thinking about sustainable ways to manage it.

For that purpose, this meeting hosted by the Complutense University of Madrid wants to contribute to the development of ideas and the sense of responsibility of the whole society in the fulfilment of the UN SDGs. ESACH wants the 2030 Agenda to be present in some way in the presentations and in the meeting organization itself. The Cultural Heritage has much to contribute in the fight against the climatic emergency, something that it was well reflected in the development of the COP25 Madrid-Chile 2019.

ESACH Meeting 2020 Madrid is conceived to give voice to many young participants and for that ESACH launch:

- Call for Proposals for presentations (14 speakers). This call is looking for research projects proposals from that contributes to the most pressing debates in Cultural Heritage field. The ESACH Madrid area of study focuses on Cultural Heritage management, therefore, proposals should take this aspect into account, valuing it positively when choosing presentations.
- Call for Posters (8 speakers). This call is looking for posters to present investigation works, citizen participation projects, use of new technologies or ideas for a sustainable use of Heritage.

Attendance grants are available. Deadline: ~~1st March 2020~~ 8th March 2020

In addition, we will invite professionals with a long career, also professional and social associations, like ICOMOS Spain and Hispania Nostra, to participate in specific presentations and activities. There will also be a practical workshop on Cultural Heritage management and visits to heritage sites in the capital of Spain.
